COMPANY OVERVIEW

NorthStar Consulting Group, a Woman Owned (WOSB) & Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB) registered in Maryland, stands at the forefront of delivering specialized consulting services to both government and public sectors. NorthStar's team has a stellar reputation and well-established relationships in the contracting industry. Our expertise spans a comprehensive range of services and customized strategic solutions in program management, cybersecurity, IT modernization, administrative support, and logistics, all meticulously crafted to meet the intricate demands of civilian and defense US government agencies.

WHY NORTHSTAR?

At the core of NorthStar is a deep commitment to integrity and excellence. We identify, anticipate, and address our clients' needs and offer innovative, effective solutions that drive business success. With our expertise in both government and public sector contracting, we are adept at optimizing outdated processes and designing tailored plans that help you transform your strategy and fulfill your mission. In an industry where change is the only constant, we want to ensure you can confidently navigate unexpected or complex challenges and see meaningful, measurable results. We pride ourselves on the ability to cultivate a transparent and communicative alliance from start to finish that continues to exceed your expectations.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT?

Client-Focused Partnership:

We believe the most solid foundation of every client partnership is built with a collaborative approach. By working closely with you to help identify your agency's unique challenges and goals, we develop a clear plan and offer solutions that produce the most impactful and lasting results. As a family-owned company, we bring an unparalleled level of care and attention to the table with a personal touch and consistent availability.

Specialized Expertise:

With expert level industry knowledge and experience, we uphold only the highest standards for the strategic solutions we offer. Our team consistently maintains all current certifications and stays up to date on industry trends and developments. As a result, we are able to share with our partners the specialized insight and nuance required to inform the decisions we make together.

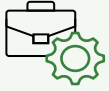

Agility and Innovation:

NorthStar truly shines in our focus on agility and commitment to innovation. We provide the support and flexibility you need to adapt to the ever-evolving landscapes of defense and civilian projects. Our team is not just responsive to unexpected challenges; we anticipate them, ensuring that you are always a step ahead.

Mission-Driven Results:

At the heart of our company is a client first, purpose-driven mindset. We focus on earning your trust with open, authentic communication and focused solutions, rather than providing quick fixes. Our dedication to translating your objectives into real action fuels our approach to every project, ensuring outcomes that not only meet but also exceed expectations. We provide solutions you can continue to implement, helping to facilitate learning and independence for operational success and mission sustainability.
